"And a threefold cord is not quickly broken." Ecclesiastes 4:12

Informed Consent Form

Please read this carefully, tick each box and sign. Ask us if anything is unclear.

This form explains how Pastor John and Margaret Ameobi work with couples and individuals, and what you can expect from your counselling sessions.

1. The counselling we offer
   We offer Christian marriage counselling based on the Bible. It is not medical, psychological, legal or financial advice, and you may seek those from a qualified professional at any time.

2. Taking part is a requirement
   Taking part is a requirement. Your attendance is important to see positive results. Our sessions include prayer and Bible reading.

3. Confidentiality
   What you share is kept private and is not passed on without your permission. The only exceptions are a serious risk of harm to you or someone else, a child or vulnerable adult at risk, or where the law requires us to share.

4. Your safety
   Counselling together may not be right if you are afraid of your partner. If you feel unsafe, please tell us. In an emergency call 999.

5. Sessions, fees and cancellation
   [Add session length, fees, and notice needed to cancel or reschedule here.]

6. Your information and no guarantees
   We keep your details only to arrange your sessions, store them securely under UK GDPR and never sell them. You may ask to see, correct or delete them at [your contact email]. Sessions are not recorded unless everyone agrees. We cannot promise any outcome, but we promise to listen, pray and walk with you.
